Exit 1922

The end of this week sees the exit of the year 1922. It has not been a year of prosperity, but it has been a year of recovery from the after effects of the Great War. Business all over the world is settling down to a solid and sure footing. A number of institutions which had their growth in the war years but were without a sound foundation have been weeded out. Currency in Anglo-Saxon countries and in some foreign countries has made its recovery to parity, or nearly so.

Western Canada has suffered severely from the general demoralization in world conditions. Alberta has not been so fortunate this year as Manitoba and Saskatchewan in the crop harvested, and consequently money is still tight.

The necessity still exists for a system of marketing that will give us the benefit of a good crop when we have one. The attempt to form a wheat board for 1923 abortive, but prospects are good for it next year.

In the Western Bow Valley, centering on Strathmore, crops have been better on the average than throughout the Province as a whole and the extent and yield from irrigated lands has been gratifying, and from now on there is the prospect of a steady increase in the acreage and value of irrigated crops. The big problem now is not the growing of crops, but the marketing of them. The market exists, and we can get to it, if we can exercise enough business sense, and the people of the province work together for it.

In no other country in the world are conditions better than they are in Western Canada at the present time, in no country in the world are there as good prospects for the future. We can look forward to 1923 with every confidence, work hard, exercise both our brains and bodies, and everything will come our way.

Neither should we neglect our morals. The besetting sin of this North American Continent is that we put the dollar first, we exalt material prosperity at the expense of spiritual and intellectual prosperity. One does not need to be rich to enjoy life, but one certainly needs to be honest and good. Greeds have various definitions as to what constitutes morality, but what is required of a man or woman is that they think more of the things of the spirit. If we think of 1923 as a year in which we will make money we will be disappointed. The get of gold is always at the foot of the rainbow, but the opportunity of living life pleasantly and healthfully is within our grasp now.

PROSECUTED FOR FRAUD

On prosecution entered by the District Department of Agriculture, T.
J. M. Dismore of Seven Persons, appeared before Magistrate Rae at Strathmore last on Tuesday, 20 last week, charged with fraudulent handling of accounts in connection with the linenporter, left station at Seven Persons last summer. He was committed for trial after evidence was taken.

Successful Concert

On Friday evening, December 22 was held the second annual concert of the Orange Valley school, and Xmas treat for the children.

There were some twenty or more bands on the programme, along with the children, consisting of duos, trios, quartets, group singing, fancy drills, etc., running the whole gamut from the serious, comic, tragic, etc., even to the exhibition of a live Congo dwarf who greatly amused the audience by asking, and being asked by his showman various questions about individuals in the audience. Every item was well rendered and showed not only the good advancement the children had made in their work for the term, but also showed the good able work of their teacher.

If one could judge from the happy smiling faces of the parents, the noise clapping of hands, and results given, there could be no doubt that all went home feeling that they had spent a pleasant profitable evening.

After the lunch had been served the room was cleared for dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Hirtz and their talented son favoured us with good music such as made even the old married men and their head-bowed daughters take the floor until the very small hours of the morning.

The Toronto Express was delayed for some time on Thursday last week because of a peculiar accident.

The train was driving along several hours late, owing to the bad weather, when a hand of horse car ran into the engine, breaking it into two.

The night was dark, and the engine was seen on the track, and the train was stopped. The horse car was seen to be on the track, and the train was stopped.
